Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

Bay St. Louis has had more than its share of publicity—national and local—during the past week—all of it bad . . . certainly not the kind of advertising a live, civic-minded Chamber of Commerce would recommend for the betterment of its people and its community, but which calls for a united effort on the part of our own Chamber of Commerce and the public in general to overcome what we consider a bad break at this time when our town could really use a few good breaks . . . parents of all children who are eligible to take the free swimming courses now being offered by the American Red Cross should encourage them to take the lessons, because it is important that everyone know how to swim, for their own safety and protection as well as that of others . . . the Little Theatre is much in the news this week, presenting "You Can't Take It With You," four nights before capacity crowds . . . tryouts were held this week for "Life With Father," which the Little Theatre will present in the near future . . . the newly-appointed chief of police, Alcine Saucier will take over his new duties today, together with several other changes in the force . . . the church fair for the benefit of St. Claire's Catholic Church in Waveland, will be held this weekend, July 2-3-4, on the church grounds in Waveland . . . work was begun this week on the new super market, which will be constructed on the lot, corner of Main and Second Streets and which will be operated by Joseph R. Scharrf . . . we mentioned it before, Mayor Carver, but maybe you didn't see it, so we'll say again, if you couldn't possibly put some kind of a guard rail on the water side of the beach road on deMontuozin Avenue to the highway bridge, because this is really a dangerous spot, especially at night or during rainy weather . . . state health authorities are keeping a close watch on reports of polio cases these days, as reported, the "real polio season" is just beginning, and the public is asked to take every precaution possible to prevent any spread of this dread disease . . . this weekend will see plenty of automobile traffic on the highways due to the three-day Fourth of July holiday, so have your cars checked now and drive carefully over the weekend to avoid accidents . . . did you go to the courthouse and register yet, if not you'd better go today, this is the deadline.

Community Band Schedules Third Concert For Sunday

The Community Band will hold its regular Sunday concert at 5 p. m., on City Hall grounds, George Wimberly, director, announced.

Approximately twenty members of the band motored to Biloxi, Tuesday, to participate in an American Legion parade. Because all players did not take the trip participation in the parade, as representatives of the Clement R. Bontemps Post of the local American Legion, was cancelled.

Those going attended a picnic and other social events given on that day.

HUSBAND OF FORMER RESIDENT SUCCUMBS

William Henry Casteline, died at 3:20 p. m. in his home in New Orleans. He was 57.

Funeral services were held Thursday from the P. J. McMahon & Sons funeral home, and were followed by a High Mass at the Immaculate Word church. He was interred in the Greenwood cemetery.

The deceased was the husband of the former Julia L. Taconi, also of Bay St. Louis.

He is also survived by three children: Mrs. Burl R. Mahl, Jr., Mrs. Edward W. Robert, Jr., and Miss Violet May Casteline. He is a brother of Mrs. John Valla of Mobile, Joseph and Fred Casteline of Pass Christian, and Edward R. Casteline of New Orleans. He had three grandchildren.

Church Club Entertains Hospitalized Veterans

Approximately thirty veterans from the Gulfport Veterans' hospital were entertained at Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dupiquier's Ten Oak farm Tuesday, June 28.

Each month a group of veterans is entertained by some organization or group of ladies through the Hancock County chapter of the American Red Cross volunteer service, Mrs. Leo Seal, chairman; this month members of the Episcopal Guild acted as hostesses.

While in New York Miss Gloria Benigno attended the A B C-W. D. S. U. "Stop the Music" radio show and identified a song title when the telephone contestant failed to do so. She was awarded a watch.

Wanted! Information Concerning This Old Hancock Indian Fighter

Postmaster Leo Ford last week received a letter from the Ft. Worth Star Telegram asking for information on Major Ripley Allen Arnold, a native of Hancock County who in the mid 1800's was an Indian fighter in the old west.

It seems, according to the letter, that in 1849 Major Arnold of the Second Dragoons, U. S. Cavalry, selected a site in north Texas as an army outpost against the Indians. This camp was to grow and to prosper and finally to emerge as that proud Texas city, Ft. Worth.

PLANS RECOGNITION
This year, 1949, Ft. Worth celebrates its centennial anniversary, and wants to recognize Major Arnold and the work of him and his troops in establishing the city.
"Unfortunately," wrote Cullum E. Greene of the Star-Telegram, "his descendants in this part of the country lost all their memoirs of him in a fire."

Waveland Pier Builders Follow In Wake Of Previous Potentate

Chief Pismataha used to do it. The French and Spanish settlers used to do it.

And for the past few years, at least, the people of Waveland have done it regularly.

In fact, Waveland is going in for it in an ever-growing fashion. . . . Building municipal piers, that is. Legend has it that years and years ago, no less personage than Old Chief Pismataha himself built one of the earliest community swimming facilities for his people along the Gulf coast right about where the present Waveland pier reaches out into the Mississippi sound.

CHURCH CHIEF

It is further related how the corpulent old Indian used to escort groups of young braves and squaws to the pier for enjoyable recreation periods. It seems that the chief took the greatest delight in getting the youngsters lined up along the long thin structure of his day, then taking the seat nearest the shore he would move his bulk seaward and laugh heartily as his squealing wards fell off into the aqua blue.

Some years later this area was invaded by French and Spanish settlers. Between what is now Nicholson and Waveland Avenues these

Caesar Baptist Church Dedicated; Dr. D. A. McCall Gives Sermon

Approximately five hundred were present for the dedication of the new $50,000.00 Baptist church at Caesar Sunday, June 26. Services were presided over by Rev. S. P. Powell, pastor of the Union Baptist church, Caesar.

The morning service at 10:15 was dedicated almost entirely to members of long standing with special recognition given to Freeman Lee, 93, the oldest member of the church.

Dr. D. A. McCall, executive secretary of the Mississippi State Mission board, took as his topic for the official dedication sermon, "All Out For Christ." This service was followed by the placing of the cornerstone by members of the building committee of which Fitzhugh Lee was chairman.

The cornerstone contained a copy of the deed, for 40 acres of church property, issued May 2, 1891 by Governor J. M. Stone; the church roll, a list of officers and teachers of the church for 1949; and a bible which Rev. Powell had used during his pastorate for the past five years.

PHOTOS MUCH BETTER

"Do you know of anyone in your community who would be willing to search out all the information possible concerning Major Arnold, his courtship and marriage to Miss Catharine Bryant, her family and his family? And of course, if there should be in any old albums any photos of them, that would be much better."

The only information concerning the major available in Ft. Worth is that he was a 1838 graduate of West Point and married Miss Bryant of Bay St. Louis in 1941.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW

Do you know anything about Major or Mrs. Arnold?

"The Star-Telegram will be glad to pay whatever it is worth to whoever digs out this information," Mr. Greene's letter continued.

Address all replies to Cullum E. Greene, Star-Telegram, Ft. Worth, 1, Texas.

Improved Methods Taught By 4-H Found Beneficial

Time and motion studies are not tools of industry alone. In Mississippi over 700 farms have become proving grounds where boys and girls enrolled in the 1949 National 4-H better methods electric awards program are finding easier and better ways of doing a job. Everything from unloading grain to washing dishes is analyzed to save time and money. The family and community alike benefit from more efficient practices developed through this activity.

Guided by club leaders and county agents, 4-H'ers are "learning by doing" some of the 350 ways in which electricity is used on the farm. Doing the family wash, roasting a chicken, pumping water, milking cows, and making minor electrical repairs are only a few examples of tasks the teen-agers try to improve. And on farms where electricity is not available (about 30%) better methods of doing everyday chores are worked out and practiced.

Club members keep records of accomplishments and for the best in each county the Westinghouse educational foundation presents a gold-filled medal of honor. The state winner is given an educational trip to the National 4-H Club congress in Chicago, and for the six top ranking members in the nation, a $500 scholarship is awarded. To the county in Mississippi reporting the most outstanding 4-H better methods electric program Westinghouse sends an appropriately inscribed plaque.

Missionary Society To Meet

"Christ, the answer to oriental religion" is the topic for discussion at the July meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church.

The meeting will be held Tuesday, July 5, at the church.

Mrs. H. B. Duckworth of Biloxi will lead the discussion and Mrs. Claude Broach will give the devotion.

KERGOSIEN LEAVES FOR NAVAL ACADEMY AT ANNAPOLIS, MD.

PHIL KERGOSIEN

Phil Kergosien, 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Kergosien, left Saturday, for the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.

A graduate of St. Stanislaus college in 1948, Phil attended Marion Institute at Marion, Ala. during the 1948-49 school year. He received his appointment through Wm. Colmer, representative from the sixth district.

At St. Stanislaus, Phil was an honor student, took active part in sodality work, played football for four years, and wrote for the school paper, the Rock-A-Chaw. He was also considered for the annual graduation award, the Character Cup.

At Marion, a military institute which prepares young men particularly for West Point and Annapolis, he received training which directly influenced his being accepted at the Academy. While at Marion he was a member of the Monogram club, and of the varsity football squad.

Meeting Of Strawberry Growers Discuss New Crop For Hancock

"Strawberries can be raised in Hancock county and let's raise them," Howard Simmons, county agent, said Tuesday night at the meeting of farmers and other interested citizens who had gathered to discuss the raising of strawberries for market in this county.

After a few words of appreciation to the 57 persons present, Mr. Simmons turned the meeting over to Mayor Warren J. Carver who stated briefly that when he assumed his duties as mayor of Bay St. Louis he had three objectives other than the general routine of office—to encourage industrial economy, the tourist trade, and agricultural economy. He saw the last of these materializing in the raising of strawberries, he said.

"Personally I know of one local man who realized $1,200.00 from his strawberry crop on an acre piece of ground, Mayor Carver said.

PROJECT NEEDS BAY

F. P. Amsler, Harrison county farm agent, was then introduced. "I am not here to tell you how to raise strawberries," he said, "but I am here to tell you that we would like to have you come in with us in this project. We need Bay St. Louis," he said.

Mr. Amsler gave a brief resume of their trip to the strawberry area at Hammond, La. He described methods of the raising of berries, fertilization, care, classification for shipping, freezing, preserving, etc. The Hammond center will grow plants and be able to deliver them for November planting, he said urging all those interested to place their order for plants now.

FREEZING AND MERCHANDISING

Eddie Albrook, Albrook Fisheries at Gulfport, spoke to the group from the standpoint of freezing and merchandising and said that the No. 1 berry is for immediate sale and consumption.

Wilson, superintendent of the experiment station at Hammond said that Long Beach and Bay St. Louis are missing an opportunity if they do not go into this project and make this section a strawberry section.

OBSTACLES OVERCOME

George Estes, vice-president of the Gulfport branch of the Hancock Bank expressed himself as being vitally interested in the growing of berries. He said he spoke from experience when he said it is hard work to grow strawberries but it can be done. "We grew them," he said, "but our nearest market was Memphis. We had to ship without refrigeration. Car loading moved slowly, so we glugged the group they had put those obstacles local market." He reminded the

PICKLING PROCESS

Joe Colson, of the Colson Sea Food Co., Waveland, spoke to the group from the standpoint of freezing strawberries and the processing of cucumbers for pickling. Mr. Colson said he had talked with a prospective cucumber grower and if this materialized he would be the buyer of the crop. Mr. Colson plans to open a branch in Bay St. Louis in the former Helen Ann products building near the Roemer Creameries. This will be in conjunction with his Waveland Sea Food stand.

TRANSPORTATION

It was brought out at the meeting that transportation of crops in Hancock county and outlying areas will be taken care of by the buyers if yield is sufficient.

"Other information offered dealt with the cost per acre for growing strawberries which averages $100 to $125 per acre; the average yield per acre; and crates for shipping which can be furnished the growers at a non-profit sale.

Terrell Perkins, local business man considered the growing of strawberries a drawing card and an opportunity for selling much of the unused lands in this area.

Methodist Building Fund Tea Held

Ante-Bellum Ossian hall at Pass Christian was opened Sunday, June 26 from 5 to 9 p.m. by its owners, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert DeBen for a benefit tea sponsored by the Main Street Methodist church of Bay St. Louis. The proceeds will go to the church building fund.

In the living room red gladiolas added to the color of the room setting, in the reception hall was an arrangement of yellow gladiolas. The antique dining table, centered with a container of white gladiolas, was covered with a lace cloth, and silver candelabra held white lighted candles.

Serving punch from a silver punch bowl alternately during the hours of the tea were Mary Helen Curran, Betty Lusk, Virginia Seal, Myrtle Cook, Jane Blair, Alicia Rollins, Yvonne Claiborne, and Merle Radford of Bay St. Louis; Susanne Seaman of Houston, Texas and Lola Adams of Pass Christian. They all wore period dresses.

Mrs. De Ben was receiving in a black taffeta formal dress fashioned in keeping with the period displayed in the house and its furnishings. Receiving with her were her house guest, Mrs. Ida Prados of New Orleans; Mrs. Ton Adams and Mrs. H. L. Swift of Pass Christian; Mrs. L. Rogers and Mrs. W. J. Gex of Bay St. Louis; and Mrs. Jason Floyd of Gulfport. All wore costumes carrying out the period represented.

Approximately two hundred called during the afternoon and evening.

Auditor's Report Shows Former City Council $90,000 Short

The State Department of audits has forwarded to the Mayor and commission council of the city of Bay St. Louis a report of a detailed audit of the records of the financial transactions of Bay St. Louis for the four fiscal years beginning October 1, 1944 and ending September 30, 1948, and for that part of the current fiscal year to March 31, 1949.

The scope of the audit as set out in a letter of transmittal which "embraced an accounting for all receipts of record, and an examination of such expenditure accounts and other documents of a financial character as were available, a reconciliation of fund balances with the depository, and such analyses of transactions as was deemed essential for compiling and presenting as accurately as possible the results of the city's operations for the periods indicated above."

SEPARATE REPORTS
A separate report was needed on the order of the natural gas division since the accounting period of this department of the city differs from that of the other departments for the purpose of presenting an overall picture of the financial condition of Bay St. Louis. However, all funds

WANT YOUR WATER

"Water rents will be due July 1, 1949," according to J. Cyril Glover, city tax collector.

He urges all users to "please mail your remittance or call at the City Hall to pay same."

CURRENT OBLIGATIONS

"According to the records of accounts, current liabilities aggregating $49,202.47 consist of accounts payable of $16,979.05, salaries payable of $11,515.07, notes payable of $19,782.88 and withholdings from employees salaries of $925.47. A large part of these obligations were liquidated subsequent to the date of this report.

"Schedules of this exhibit sets forth an analysis of the city's bonded debt amounting to a total of $364,200, of which $162,000 represents a direct obligation of the natural gas division and is secured by the assets and revenue of this division. The balance of $202,200 represents principally street, school improvement and water work bonds, and are direct obligations of the municipality. Your special attention is directed to certain bond issue as indicated on the schedule, the payments of which are barred by the statute of limitations.

"The surplus account indicates that the regular city funds have an operating surplus of $11,208.19 at March 31, 1949, which, in view of the fact that the greater part of the ad valorem taxes has already been collected, is hardly sufficient to finance the operations of the city for any length of time.

IRREGULARITIES IN HANDLING FUNDS

"Our audit of the city tax collector's office resulted in disclosing numerous irregularities and discrepancies in accounting for ad valorem taxes and water rentals which are shown by receipts on file to have been collected by that office. Exhibit 'C' of this report sets forth details of amounts collected and not reported, summaries of which are presented below:

Collections on 1944 tax roll $6,324.27
Collections on 1945 tax roll $5,812.40
Collections on 1946 tax roll $9,816.46
Collections on 1947 tax roll $10,006.02
Collections on 1948 tax roll $ 54.10

Total $32,013.25
Less: differences in cash book and receipts-net $ 10.93

Net total ad valorem tax receipts to be accounted for $32,002.32

Add:
Land Redemptions unaccounted for $ 174.09
Water works rentals $ 6,506.67
Total Collections not accounted for by tax collector's office $38,683.08
Interest on above at 6% per annum to June 1, 1949 $ 5,943.57
Total $44,626.65
Less: partial settlement of claim made 5-18-49 net $11,490.72
Balance to be accounted for $33,135.93

TAX COLLECTORS DEBITS

"In an effort to determine accurately the amount of ad valorem taxes for which the city tax collector was held accountable each year, according to the assessment rolls, we employed the usual procedure of charging the collector with total assessed valuations of all realty and personal properties found entered on the respective rolls, and including additional assessments, and crediting him with reduced assessments, uncollected realty, and insolvent personal taxes, and with differences in assessments and receipts and, also errors in receipts, thereby arriving at the correct tax receivable from each taxpayer. In addition, we applied against these charges the credits for the amount of homestead exemption which was allowed to the taxpayer and for the settlements which had been made with the city depository. Thus, the deficiency in settlements for each tax collection year, as shown by this exhibit and exhibit 'C', was determined.

ILLEGAL EXPENDITURES

Comments on audit of expenditure accounts and explanation of reasons for taking exceptions to certain payments made from the funds of the city were made by the auditors. "It was impossible for us to determine whether or not all expenditures were made in accordance with legal requirements and/or for objects authorized by law for the reason that

THE PEOPLE'S EYES FOLLOW YOU

We were quite amused at the statement of our young mayor, that he would attempt to keep the public informed of the commission council's proceedings through another medium since we had refused further publication of "Our Town." He would have you believe that we have done him a great injustice in not publishing his column, and to us it seems that he is seeking to be classed as a political martyr.

At the time of his election we offered the mayor any amount of space in our newspaper to be used by him and his associate commissioners to bring to the people their views, to enlist the aid of the citizens of Bay St. Louis in the tremendous job which many knew was confronting them.

Mr. Carver accepted our offer and suggested that each week he would write a column for the paper entitled "Our Town." We gave him a free rein as to the material to be published and even allowed him to include certain data which should have been placed in the paper as legal advertising.

When the campaign preceding the election of June 4 was at fever heat and the mayor and his opponents were circulating one another, the copy for "Our Town" was sent to the Echo for the June 3 issue with only this statement for publication: "OUR TOWN WILL NOT BE PUBLISHED IN THE ECHO THIS WEEK FOR VARIOUS REASONS. IT WILL BE DISTRIBUTED IN CIRCULAR FORM."

We did not object to the mayor's issuing circulars. However, on many occasions in his column he has written of his earnest effort to bring payrolls to our city. Yet when he had a circular to be printed the work was done elsewhere. There are two printing offices in Bay St. Louis, and neither was afforded an opportunity to quote a price on the job. But the mayor wanted us to publicize the fact that he was distributing a circular. He did not think of aiding the payrolls already here. Were his actions prompted by the selfish interests in control of the rackets or was it because we dared criticize editorially his acts on certain premises?

The following week the copy of "Our Town" contained his masterpiece on cooperation and brotherly love. We think these were hollow words; therefore, we did not publish them. The mayor called and asked why it was not published, and we informed him that we saw fit not to. His actions since that date have convinced us that we were correct. This was the last we have seen of his column, other than what he has mailed on two occasions—failing to put us on his mailing list the last time.

Our differences of opinion with Mayor Carver are over matters of policy, of what we think is right and wrong, or what will redound to the benefit of Bay St. Louis. It is not a personal matter. In our heart he has always been in a position of a son. We think he has been misled and is wrong in the stand he has taken. As we would with one of our sons, we are striving to make him see the pitfalls. We tried to do this by discussing the matter with him, but to no avail. There was only one alternative—to bring it forcibly to the attention of his constituency, who he himself said "spoke in a loud voice" in the election of June 4.

We would rather be singing his praises and urging and aiding him to seek wider horizons. We are fast reaching the sunny side of life and are seeking no personal honor or glory. Our sole ambition is to help create opportunities for the boys and girls we and others in this lovely little city are rearing to manhood and womanhood so that they may remain in our midst, close to those who are near and dear to them.

You, too, Mr. Mayor, can do much to help in this cause. The root of the evil, if you will attempt to analyze it, is the slot machine racket controlled by selfish interests who are retarding instead of developing opportunities for our youth.

The eyes of your people are following you. They have given you a mandate. Will you ignore it or will you carry it out? You still have the opportunity to render a service to your people. Your actions can be more expressive than any words uttered or written, and will bring to you a spirit of cooperation of a grateful and unselfish populace to aid you in the upbuilding of Bay St. Louis.

It is up to you, Mr. Mayor.
What will your answer be?

You Must Help Keep Your Social Security Records in Good Shape

If you have a social security card, the Social Security administration is keeping an individual record of your earnings in a big central office at Baltimore, Md.

When you work under social security, your employer sends in every three months a report of your earnings and gives your name and social security account number, as you give it to him. These reports go finally to the Social Security administration office at Baltimore, where they are posted to the individual records.

There are more than 70,000,000 social security accounts in Baltimore. No one can keep your record straight unless you do your part. You must see that your employer has your name and social security account number just as they appear on your social security card.

You should have only one social security account. If you lose your card, get a duplicate with the same number. If you change your name, be sure to notify the Social Security administration, so your record can be corrected.

If you want to know how much your social security account shows, you may have a statement once each year. Mistakes in social security records usually cannot be corrected after four years.

This is the seventh in a series of articles on "Your Social Security." In our next issue, we shall discuss, "Your Social Security—Who is Covered."

For further information consult your local Social Security Administration Field Office.

White Dutch Clover Improves Milk Production, Says Mrs. Wittorf

This is the fourth of a series of reports from the Hancock County soil conservation committee. Last week Fitzhugh Lee told of the help Mr. Bishop gave in preparing his land for pasture, and the value of white Dutch Clover, Dallas Grass and Lespedeza for grazing.

Mr. Rester: "Gentlemen, we have with us Mrs. Wittorf, widow of one of our former cooperators. We would like to hear what Mrs. Wittorf has to say. We would like for you to know that Mr. and Mrs. Wittorf came to our District in 1939 from Chicago. Mrs. Wittorf will tell you start and tell us something about yourself and what you think about the Soil Conservation Service and what it has done for you."

Mrs. Wittorf: "Mr. Rester, we were in the grocery business in Chicago for about 17 years. We made a living and made good money but it was a long hard job. We worked practically all the time. We came south thinking that we would do some fishing and take it easy. We bought a tract of land consisting of about 345 acres in all in Hancock County and as soon as the Soil Conservation District was organized, my husband asked Mr. Bishop, working with the Soil Conservation Service to come out and help us to work out a farm plan putting the acres into their correct use. Mr. Wittorf had gotten our farm plan well underway. He had terraced all open lands that were cultivated and had planted about 150 acres in tung trees. We were planning cover crops, both summer and winter on all tung land and getting it into better condition for growing trees and development of pasture.

During 1947 my husband died and my only child, a son, was in the armed forces. With the help of my neighbors I was able to secure his release from the army to come back and manage the farm. The first thing my son, Alfred, did was to contact Mr. Bishop and ask to carry on the farm plan as worked out by Mr. Bishop and my husband. We have practically everything put into effect on our place that has been called for in our farm plan with the exception of a fish pond. We intend to put that in some time in the near future. In the beginning we were just going to plant tung trees just everywhere on the farm but Mr. Bishop told us and showed us from a conservation survey the land that should be put in tung trees. When we get through we hope to have some 200 acres in tung trees and that should be next year.

There is one story I would like to tell you about our pasture work. We had some calves on our pasture last year and we sold these calves on an average of $114.00 per head. The native calves of about the same age would have been around $50.00 in price. These calves were 6 or 7 months old. We sold hogs 6 months old that were grazed on White Clover and Crimson Clover weighing 180 pounds. When we put our cows on the White Dutch Clover pasture the milk production was doubled. We have been planting wild Winter Peas, vetch and Legumes that are reseeded and we have combined all these that we can. Now Alfred is taking over the farm. He has returned from the Army and is carrying on the plan started by his father."

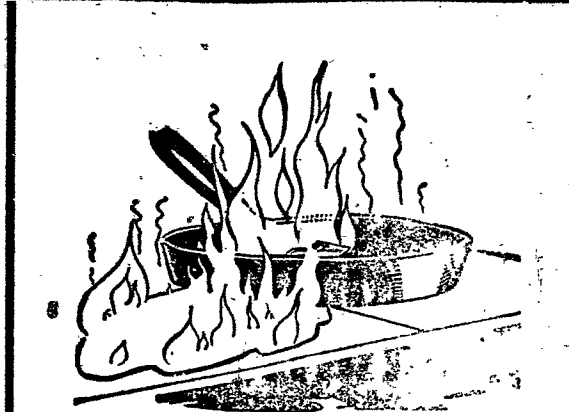

Alfred Wittorf: "I had rather live in a rural district than in the city

although I was raised in the city and was very happy when I got out of the Army to return to the farm.

Mother said we would come south and take it easy. We bought a boat and brought it with us. We used it for the first time in five years this fall. There is plenty of work to do on the farm but it will pay off if you will do the work as outlined. The only thing that puts us behind our schedule is that pond and we intend to build it."

Mr. Rester: "Gentlemen" we have Mr. Howard Simmons, our County Agent, here. We would like to hear from you Mr. Simmons."

Mr. Simmons: "The Soil Conservation Service and County Agent are working together very closely in this district and are accomplishing a lot. I am taking care of the educational work and when anything dealing with the operational division turns up, it is referred to Mr. Bishop and the Soil Conservation Service. He takes care of the opera-

The Ford overdrive* pays for itself

In the long run its flashing performance doesn't cost you a cent!

Ford's new Overdrive is an optional extra that pays off in actual savings as well as in the surging smoothness it adds to your ride. In Overdrive your engine speed drops 30% while car speed remains unchanged. The resulting savings of up to 15% in gas plus the savings in oil, engine life, and repairs more than repay the original cost. But more important is the quieter, effortless ride, the flexibility and power response you get. And it's controlled by the touch of your toe for passing in a flash ... and a smoother, more relaxing ride on the road.

Read these typical comments of Ford Owners

"I have always owned and driven a Ford. This is my first Six-cylinder Ford. The overdrive gives performance I never dreamed of. It's really amazing! On a recent long trip, I averaged 22.6 miles per gallon of gas."
Warren Breaux, Raceland, La.

"Never realized what a fine car the Ford is, until I owned and drove one with overdrive," says Mike Biello, Thibodaux, La. "My V-8 averages 21 miles per gallon. I can assure you it's Ford for me from now on."

Vetch Reduces Soil Loss And Increases Yield

State College, Miss.—Vetch increased corn yields and prevented soil loss in erosion plot tests at the Experiment Station last year, according to T. N. Jones, agricultural engineer.

On a 2.5 percent slope, a plot on which vetch was planted yielded corn at a rate of 33 bushels per acre and had no soil loss. A similar plot without vetch produced corn at a rate of 44 bushels per acre also without soil loss because of the slight degree of slope.

LOST 611 POUNDS

On a 5 percent slope, a plot on which vetch was grown yielded corn at a rate of 43.8 bushels per acre and lost no soil. A comparable plot without vetch produced corn at a rate of 35.4 bushels per acre and lost 611 pounds of soil per acre by erosion.

On a 7.5 percent slope, the vetch plot produced corn at a rate of 47.5 bushels per acre and lost soil at a rate of 652 pounds per acre. Without vetch the production was 63.4 bushels and the soil loss 4,912 pounds per acre.

A 10 percent slope with vetch produced 45.3 bushels per acre and lost soil at a rate of 9,610 pounds. Without vetch the production was 37 bushels and soil loss 12,040 pounds.

14,080 POUNDS GONE

Plots sloping 12.5 percent made the following record: with vetch 47.8 bushels of corn and 14,080 pounds of soil loss and without vetch 48.7 bushels and 15,052 pounds of soil loss.

All plots received the same fertilizer treatment of 600 pounds 6-8-4 per acre.

The total rainfall for 1948 was 58.54 inches, which was 7.78 inches above the past 60-year average. February was above normal by 3.10 inches; May was low with 3.00 inch shortage; September high by 4.34 inches and October short by 2.16 inches. Although the averages, shortages and annual rainfall are significant, the rains were not of an outstanding detrimental type so far as soil erosion is concerned.

Winter cover crops showed great savings in soil loss, as well as increased yields over no cover crop. These results in 1948 are consistent with longrange records of the Experiment Station erosion test plots.

Mishandling And Illegal Expenditures Are Cited

 numerous invoices and other data upon which expenditures of monies were presumably based were missing from the files, and, also, that of the invoices contained in the files a large number did not show enough information with respect to the material or character of service purchased to enable us to determine whether or not any of them represented valid and/or legal transactions. However, we encountered numerous transactions involving expenditures of the city's funds, which by their nature and the manner in which they were handled, violate the ordinances of the city and the laws of the state under which it operates.

EXHIBIT "E"

This exhibit treats of expenditures made on December 22, 1944 amounting in an aggregate to $29,000, concerning which we cite below evidences, according to the city's records, of the illegal manner in which this sum of money was expended.

1. The proceeds obtained from special street improvement bonds amounting to $29,000 sold by the city of Bay St. Louis to the bond firm of Weil and Arnold of New Orleans on December 22, 1944 were not deposited to a separate and distinct fund account as provided by bond resolutions, the said proceeds being deposited to the credit of a street improvement fund account used to disburse the proceeds of a 1940 street improvement bond issue.

2. The commission did not designate any street, streets, or avenues on which they proposed to spend the proceeds of the said $29,000 bond issue as provided in section 7 of the ordinance, in which it states "for the construction of and hardsurfacing of certain streets and avenues of said city all as described in the preamble of this ordinance." The preamble as recorded in Minute Book 5, page 248, reads as follows: "Ordinance authorizing the issuance and sale of city of Bay St. Louis Street improvement bonds in the aggregate amount of $29,000.00." Therefore no streets or avenues were designated for this special improvement.

3. The proceeds of said $29,000 bond issue were received on December 22, 1944 and were expended on December 22, 1944 by two warrants, namely: Warrant No. 252, payable to Hancock Gravel Co. in the amount of $13,456.12, and Warrant No. 253, payable to Asphalt Paving Co. in the amount of $15,543.88, making a total of $29,000. Said warrants are signed by G. Y. Blaize, Mayor, and H. Grady Perkins, commissioner.

"The above mentioned expenditures having been made contrary to the law in that: (1) There was no order on the minutes authorizing their issuance, and (2) No advertisement for bids was published, no bids received, no contracts executed, no bills submitted for services rendered nor any other evidence of record that said money was expended for the purposes of constructing or improving streets or avenues as authorized by the resolutions of said bond issue.

4. Warrant No. 252, payable to Hancock Gravel Co. in the amount of $13,456.12, and Warrant No. 253, payable to Asphalt Paving Co. in the amount of $15,543.88, were not endorsed by payees but were endorsed as follows: "For Deposit Cue Oil Company, Inc." and were paid by the Merchants Bank and Trust Co., the city depository, on December 23, 1944.

5. There is nothing in the records of the said City of Bay St. Louis that indicates that it received any benefit from the proceeds of the $29,000 bond issue sold on December 22, 1944 and expended on the same date, as cited above.

EXHIBIT "F"

"To preface this exhibit we make the following explanation or statements:

On November 19, 1947 the United States Government donated through the Federal Works agency 15,428 feet of 6 inch steel black seamless pipe to the city of Bay St. Louis to facilitate the recovery from damages sustained by a hurricane on September 19, 1947. The mayor of the city of Bay St. Louis, G. Y. Blaize, executed a contract with the Government for 15,428 feet of pipe and the same was shipped via L. & N. Railroad, the freight to be paid by the city of Bay St. Louis. The L. & N. Railroad freight bill or delivery receipt indicates that the shipment of pipe was received on January 31, 1948. Warrant No. 748, dated February 2, 1948, in the sum of $3,166.21 and drawn on the gas system operation and maintenance fund, payable to the L. & N. Railroad Co., was issued to pay the freight and demurrage. In Minute Book 6, Page 115, under the date of December 15, 1948, the following order was entered:

The proposal of P. Thompson Co. for surplus pipe was tentatively accepted, but was postponed pending the ability of the said P. Thompson Co. being able to sell the said pipe for 70 cents per foot.

WIRE FROM THOMPSON

In Minute Book 6, Page 142, under the date of February 2, 1948, the following order was entered: "The proposal was accepted in the best interest of the city and the officials of said city are hereby authorized and directed to execute same at the time and place agreed upon:

"The board of Mayor and commissioners of the city of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi:
 Gentlemen:

This is to advise you that we have of (12) day of February 1948 established a credit on our books in the amount of eight hundred (8400) and for which you have delivered to us a certain lot of 6 inch black steel pipe presently stored at the yards of the L. & N. Railroad Company freight warehouse and adjacent to their spur line running in a southerly direction. It is understood that there is approximately 14,000 feet more or less of the pipe in question. However, this quantity shall not vary in either direction, more or less, than 10% of the total specified herein.

Respectfully submitted
 P. THOMPSON TOOL & SUPPLY CO.

By Theo. A. Gugert

Accepted this the (12) day of February, 1948.

Those voting yea:
 G. Y. Blaize, mayor, W. L. Bourgeois, commissioner of finance, and H. Grady Perkins, commissioner of public utilities.

Those voting nay:—None.
 "The records of the city of Bay St. Louis also reflects the following: In Minute Book 6, Page 153, under date of March 1, 1948, an order was entered authorizing the payment of the sum of $3,166.21 freight to the L. & N. Railroad Co. on pipe received from the Government. The warrant covering the freight costs was actually issued and delivered on February 2, 1948, which was twenty-eight days prior to the authorizing of same.

REFUND ON FREIGHT

"The only other information of record was found to be that of received warrant issued, to the credit of the gas operation and maintenance fund account dated July 30, 1948 in the amount of $3,166.21. The stub of said received warrant reads: 'Refund of freight on pipe from U. S. Government. There being no other evidence of record that the city of Bay St. Louis has received any other funds or monies from the sale of the above described shipment of steel pipe, we feel that it is necessary for us to make the following exceptions to the obviously unlawful manner in which this pipe was disposed of:

1. That the pipe was sold to the P. Thompson Tool and Supply Co., 1104 Tchoupitoulas St., New Orleans, La. contrary to law, whereas the records do not reveal any order authorizing the sale of same, no advertisement was made for bids and sufficient bids were not received and approved.

2. That 15,428 feet of pipe, with a market value of not less than $1.40 per foot was purportedly sold to P. Thompson Tool and Supply Co. on February 2, 1948, none of which value in dollars and cents was received by the city of Bay St. Louis, according to its records."

The total amount of funds expended on these items was $3,112.12.

"The department called attention to the deplorable condition of the filing system employed in the city hall and recommended that this be improved and that an adequate system of accounting be installed.

Economic Council Sets
Goal Of 2,000 Members,
Hancock's Quota Is 20

With all counties now having temporary organization committees set up, the Mississippi Economic Council has announced a goal of 2,000 individual and firm memberships during its first year of operation.

"Each county has minimum membership objective," Edmund Taylor, Greenville, MEC president, said. "We are very anxious that these quotas be filled as soon as possible, so the Council can devote its full time to the program of work outlined. To speak for a good cross-section of Mississippi, the Council should enroll its minimum membership goal in each county."

Hancock county's share in this initial effort is 20 members. Any individual or firm wanting to join the MEC or know more about it, should write direct to state headquarters in the Robert E. Lee hotel, Jackson.

MISERS and SPENDTHRIFTS

So far this year people are saving more money and spending less out of their current incomes. Of each $100 received by individuals, after taxes, $10.70 is being saved. One year ago the rate was $7.06 and before the war it was less than $5.00.

In a period of uncertainty and readjustment, individuals are more cautious in their spending. Their money is going into savings accounts, building and loan associations, life insurance policies and government saving bonds.

In time deposits or savings accounts, people were holding $54,700,000,000 at the end of March, an increase of $700,000,000 in the first quarter of 1949. In the form of liquid savings in bank deposits, cash, government bonds and loan associations, the people have a total of $213,250,000,000 as compared to a total of $151,000,000,000 at the end of the war.

Some economists are saying that the people are saving too much of their incomes and spending too little of it. They think over-saving will result in further declines in consumer demands and a slow-down in business. Other economists say this saving is a result and not the cause of the slump and that consumers are just waiting for lower prices. These economists think that when prices become more attractive the savers will turn loose their money and start a new turn upward.

At any rate, we are in a period of economic correction, and there is no financial comfort in such a situation like that of having a cash reserve either for emergency or opportunity.

It is a time for neither optimism nor pessimism, but one for playing safe. The ones who spend as wisely as they save get most out of life. Neither misers nor spendthrifts make much of a contribution to the prosperity of their communities. It's the level-headed, commonsense savers who hold our economy together.

Buy whatever you need, but be sure to put by something of your income into a substantial and growing reserve. No matter what happens nothing comes in so handy as a little cash when you want it or when you need it.
